Movie Experience

Dog Days in the Heartland (2015)

The movie wrapped on September 15, 2015. I play the chief of police in a small town. This is a production by Middle West Movies. In April 2015, I participated in the first read-through of the script, playing four parts. When the reading was finished, the director asked me if I would be interested in playing the role of the police chief. I auditioned in July, won the part and shooting began on August 21, 2015. The editing is scheduled to be completed by the end of the year.

Theater Experience

Double in Diamonds (approximately 1984)

I was the playboy jewel thief in the production. (It was so long ago that I had hair.) This was my first time on stage and it ranks as my most memorable experience. It all started as a lark. I wanted to see if I could audition and be chosen. I was given the part and it was a fairly large role. The Kirkwood Theater Guild people were terrific along with the cast.

Heaven Can Wait (approximately 1985)

I played the lover of the wife trying to murder Joe the prizefighter who was in the body of the rich business man. This was a Webster Theater Guild production.

Arsenic and Old Lace (approximately 1986)

I was one of the police officers in this Kirkwood Theater Guild production. This was a small role but it was a really fun production to be involved in.

Radio Experience

Worked as a radio announcer in small market and St. Louis, Missouri stations in the 1970s and 1980s.

Special Skills

Commercial Pilot and Certified Flight Instructor
